

The Gospel of the King

The Price of Glory

The _____ of our salvation

Mark 10:32-34 (ESV)

Three words make up the heart of the Gospel: _____

The entire storyline of Scripture, the history of redemption, is the story of God providing substitutes for his people to cover their shame and bear the judgment they deserved so that they might be accepted by him. That alone is a story of undeserved grace and amazing love. But all along, God's plan and purpose was not only to provide that substitute, but to be that substitute in the person of his Son, bearing in himself the punishment we could not bear and the shame we could not overcome ... the story of penal substitutionary atonement is the story of the passionate expression of God's love. It is the pinnacle of his glory. Lose penal substitution, and we not only lose the story of redemption, we lose the love and glory of God.

- Michael Lawrence, Senior Pastor of Hinson Baptist Church, Portland, Oregon

The "how" of our salvation explains the "_____ " of our salvation

Mark 10:35-45 (ESV)

Jesus' death was for our salvation, but salvation from what?

What is this "cup" that Christ speaks of?

What the disciples misunderstood (and we can't afford to) is the "_____ " of our salvation.

_____ love is _____ love.

_____ comes at great _____.

The _____ life is a _____, _____ life.

This may include ...

Implications for me today: