Happy Independence Day!

We are so glad that you have decided to worship with us today! Today, is a day that we reflect as a nation on the providence of God that allowed us to live in a country free from tyranny and built on God-inspired ideals of human freedom, equality, dignity, and opportunity. Though it is far from perfect, and can never be Heaven on Earth, we are immensely grateful for the blessings that we graciously experience by being citizens of the United States of America.

One thing that we take a lot of pride in in our country and culture is the concept of “Independence”. We love it on a national scale, and we highly value it on an individual level. But today, as followers of Jesus, we celebrate a far better citizenship and a far greater freedom!

Because of Jesus, we are made citizens of the Kingdom of God. And rather than finding freedom in our independence, our self-efforts, and willpower, we find freedom from sin as we declare and celebrate our total “Dependence” on God, our creator and source of life in all matters of life.

Today, we will look at the role that Jesus plays in bringing us and keeping us in this dependent relationship. We will examine our need for God to reverse our rebellion and declaration of independence from Him that resulted in nothing but pain, suffering, and death. Jesus makes it possible for us to redeemed and for us to experience the freedom of being who we were always meant to be!

For the Glory of the King!
