What happened:

Key words: “suddenly”, “like/as of”, “filled with”, and “speak in other tongues” ...

Being _____ with the Holy Spirit is not the same as being _____ with the Holy Spirit.

The Baptism of the Holy Spirit is ...

The Filling of the Holy Spirit is ...

The “tongues” of Acts were certainly _____, but not _____.
What was spoken was _____.

It revered the _____!

It _____ to follow Christ and join His Kingdom!

Note: While the people _____ the words spoken, they didn’t _____ them. This required _____.

The critical question (then and now): “What does this mean?”

It marks another _____ of Jesus ...

It _____ the Apostles for their _____ roles in the development of the Church ...

It inaugurated a _____ of the Spirit of God equipping all believers ...

It was the first “_____” ...

Ultimately, it’s meaning is all wrapped up in the _____ they would soon hear proclaimed by _____ (2:13-40).

Without Pentecost, there would be no _____, no _____, no _____, no worldwide _____, and Jesus would not be _____.

Because of Pentecost, we know that we do indeed have God’s _____. Jesus promised the Holy Spirit would come and He* did.

Because of Pentecost, we too have _____ to accomplish the yet-to-be-fulfilled task of the Great Commission.

Because of Pentecost, we too may seek and receive the _____ of the Holy Spirit to say and do remarkable things for the sake of the Gospel and the Kingdom of God in Christ.

Because of Pentecost, every Spirit-baptized believer can and should be “_____”.

The evidence of the Holy Spirit’s powerful filling:

But Peter, standing with the eleven, lifted up his voice and addressed them ...

We were grateful to receive this note of appreciation from our South Asian Missionaries:

Pastor Paul and Mission leaders,

We were just informed by the IMB of your recent gift of $10,000.00 to our Special Gifts Training project!

Once again, we thank you for your continued partnership. We can’t do this without you.

From the field...

Over the last 3 months, a state-wide government bus strike has been going on and many bus drivers/staff have been out of work. For about a month one of the local pastors I partner with has been praying, planning and asking about doing a food distribution that can meet real needs while also getting the Gospel out to 50 families affected in area. All are unbelievers from a mix of religious communities – mainly Hindu, Muslim (Shaikh included) and Buddhist backgrounds. [Saturday] February 5th they conducted the food distribution and were able to share the Gospel with the 50 families. The pastor has partnered with several Christian men to follow up with the families in the weeks to come in hopes of people coming to Christ and Bible studies beginning in their homes. Calvary Baptist Church’s funds have been used to provide the food for the distribution and also to train the pastor and the Christians he is partnering with for the follow-up ministry.

We are so grateful for how the Lord is enabling the Gospel to move forward...

By His Grace,

Bill, Merrilea, Nafisa
