

Women in a Biblically Shaped Church

1 Timothy 2:9-15

Several necessary presuppositions:

1. This passage is a message from _____. (2 Timothy 3:16-17)
 - a. It's not an apostle's '_____', but God's Word.
 - b. It is _____
 - c. It is _____
2. This passage applies specifically to the _____. (1 Timothy 3:14-16; 1 Timothy 2:8)
3. This passage is hermeneutically _____ and must be interpreted in light of _____ scripture.
4. It's unlikely we will all _____ on every implication/application, but ... We have to think biblically (and not _____, _____, and _____)
5. This passage is _____ for our _____, but not _____ to the _____.

Critical issues in the text:

1. A woman's _____

While not an outright ban on jewelry and such, there is a principle to be employed here: As the church gathered, women should carefully consider how they present themselves.

Is what I wear _____?

Is what I wear _____?

What is the motive of my appearance?

Consider the context: How might men disrupt the worship and fellowship of the church? (v. 8)

Now, how might women do that?

2. A woman's _____

"Quietness" in this passage does not mean that women must be _____ in the gathered church, but it refers to _____ with those who are teaching. Specifically, women are called to _____ to the teaching ministry of the (male) elders. This does not mean blind, unthinking, uncritical _____, but the kind of attitude that _____ the leadership of the men God has called to oversee the church. (Acts 20:28)

3. _____ and women

In the gathered church, women are encouraged (with all others) to _____ but are not permitted to _____ or have _____ over men. The reason is that to teach in the gathered church entails the teaching of Scripture and hence the use of that scripture's _____.

This role/responsibility (office and function) is reserved for (male) _____. (1 Timothy 5:17)

This verse does not mean that _____ men are to teach _____ women. Nor does the Scripture say that _____ women are to submit to _____ men. Rather, these verses teach that _____ women are to submit to the teaching and discipline of the pastors/elders of the church.

The basis for this prohibition is _____. By virtue of the order of creation, God gave Adam an _____ and a _____ that he did not give Eve.

The passage also speaks to _____ between men and women and the implications of those differences in the life of the church.

Two potentially confusing verses clarified:

v. 14 – Rather than _____ Eve, this passage teaches that God held Adam _____. Satan's distortion of creation happens when man _____ authority and woman _____ it.

v. 15 – The _____ from the Fall and the undoing of the curse of _____ is thru _____ – the unique blessing of God to _____. (Specifically, the birth of _____ – Galatians 4:4).

"... will be saved" speaks to _____ in the God-given roles He has assigned for our good.

Marriage Conference Sessions Available Online

We thoroughly enjoyed having you at our 4-week marriage conference with Paul David Tripp. We know some of you had to miss one or two sessions due to unavoidable conflicts but we still want you to be able to participate and watch with your spouse as each session has great value.

Email carenc@calvarydothan.com if you missed and she will send you the link.

How would you answer the question, "What does the Bible say about church membership?" Or how would you answer someone who says the Bible does not require church membership? Is local church membership based on our tradition only? Is it legalistic on our part to expect it of every believer? Since it is a core conviction of ours, how would we defend it from Scripture?

Are there "prooftexts" for church membership?

Pastor Sam Emaldi answers that question for us:

PROOFTEXT 1: 1 CORINTHIANS 5:12

"For what have I to do with judging outsiders? Is it not those inside the church whom you are to judge?"

The value of this text is twofold. First, Paul clearly draws a boundary between those "inside" the church and those "outside" the church. That boundary is "membership," it separates the church from the world. Second, Paul indicates that Christians have one set of responsibilities to insiders and another to outsiders. We are to "judge" insiders, which in this context refers to holding one another accountable through the mechanisms of church discipline. For Paul, then, there are church insiders and outsiders—that's church membership. Those inside the church have a special obligation to "judge" one another or hold one another accountable—that's the responsibility of church membership.

PROOFTEXT 2: 1 CORINTHIANS 12:21

"The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I don't need you!' And the head cannot say to the feet, 'I don't need you!'"

In 1 Corinthians 12, Paul describes the church as a body composed of many members. This body is a local congregation—like the Corinthians to whom Paul writes. They eat the same bread (1 Cor. 10:17), share the same sorrows, and partake in the same joys (1 Cor. 12:26). In verse 21, Paul says that the members of the body cannot say they do not "need" one another. By implication, then, they do in fact "need" one another—every believer needs to be incorporated into a body, one member among many. Saying we don't "need" to join a local church is the very error Paul is correcting in this passage. We "need" to be a "member" of a "body"—that's church membership."
