GROWING FAMILIES WHERE FAITH FLOURISHES

The Gospel-Centered Family

The most important parenting passage:

Matthew 28:18-20 (ESV)

¹⁸ Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. ¹⁹ Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰ teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

My job as a Christian parent is to do everything in my power to ...

That means I ...

... _____ on Christ, know that my calling/command is His work.

I can _____ God who is _____ and
_____!

... am careful to _____ and _____ the Gospel at home.

It is my _____ to convey Christ!

... am _____ in all of my parenting.

My relationship with God through Christ is the _____ and _____ of my parenting.

... _____ in all my actions as a parent.

I want my children to know _____ for them and to _____ Him back.
All right _____ and _____ spring from this.

(Deuteronomy 6:5, Matthew 22:37, Mark 12:30, Luke 10:27)

My big question: How well am I _____?

Some parenting regrets:

I _____ to someone/something else.

I _____ “organically”.

I underestimated the _____ of the world.

I was focused on rearing _____, not _____.

I didn't always _____.

Jesus:

I didn't fulfill the _____.

(“Teach them to obey everything ...”)

I didn't _____ enough.

If you have some regrets and haven't done what you now know you should, there's still _____.

“I haven't” implies “I haven't _____!”

My obedient response today:
