

Jesus: God's Final Word

Faith In Exile

Hebrews 11:13-16

The _____ promises of God are not realized _____.

This _____ – and all you do in it and gain from it – is not meant to fully _____ . And it _____ .

God has placed within believers His own Spirit – and that Spirit causes us to _____ and for _____ . There is no _____ .

Everything that God is doing in the life of every true believer is to prepare them for _____ and _____ .

Everything of God is _____ than _____ without Him.

Cameos of Faith – Why does the world know these names? (Hebrews 17-31)

Abraham → Considered God's _____ and _____ beyond understanding.

Isaac and Jacob → Trusted the _____ and God's ability to carry it through and passed it down.

Joseph → Lived in light of _____, not in the shadow of his _____.

Moses' parents (Jochebed and Amram) → _____ trusted God in the face of _____.

Moses → Had an _____ on life, eschewing _____ and _____, and choosing to please God instead.

Children of Israel (and Joshua) → Laid hold of God's _____ and _____ in it. They _____ and _____ on their belief in God's Word (even when they could not possibly have understood it all).

Rahab → Accepted God's _____ and _____ her life to it.

All the rest → _____ and _____ something better! (v. 32ff)

What did they all have in common?

Life-giving _____

Clarifying _____

Guiding _____

Defining _____

Enabling _____

... That all came together to produce _____ and _____ that marked them as true children of God

... And because of that, they all enjoyed _____.

Do I have what they had?