Questions for Further Study

2 Tim 4:6

Though Paul was a chosen apostle of Jesus with a specific role, the principle of spending one's life for God, for God's purposes in knowing him and making him known applies to all Christians.

Why is it so difficult for people in the church to live this out?

When is the last time you shared the Gospel with someone? How'd it go?

What are some steps you could take to put into practice the principle being put forward in this verse?

2 Tim 4:7

To daily "fight the good fight" is to continually lean into Jesus and His Word so that He deals with the idolatry of our hearts in order that we can be about living the Gospel in our family, our church, and our world.

What might that practically look like for you to do in those realms of life?

What are the current difficulties that hinder your progress?

How have you seen Jesus give you the grace to obey him?

2 Tim 4:8

After Jesus finished his work at the cross, he gave his disciples the command to make disciples of all nations. That is the work we as the church are tasked with yet so many people see life as an unending cycle of daily routines (work, play, rest) with no real direction. They don't see or choose not to live in light of the return of Christ.

What role does the return of Christ play in how you live your daily life?

What challenges have you faced to live in light of His return?

How do you see yourself taking part in bringing the Gospel to others, occupying your time with Christ's command till he returns?
