

Jesus: Condemned, Yet Innocent

Isaiah 53:7-9

When you look on the suffering of Jesus, what do you see?

Jesus is the _____ of the Father’s _____ and the Father’s _____, both of which are _____ and _____.

Jesus is the _____ for the sinner, bearing the full weight of the righteous _____ which we deserved, and affording us the _____ we don’t possess nor could achieve.

For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God ... (1 Pet. 3:18)

How?

By becoming our _____ ...

“... the blood is the life ...” (Deut. 12:23b)

“... without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins.” (Heb. 9:22b)

“... with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot.” (1 Pet. 1:19)

By being our _____ ...

The next day he saw Jesus coming toward him, and said, “Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!” (John 1:29)

Now look more closely ...

Is he merely a man?

Is he then God, pretending to be a man?

Or is he the one and only God-man?

Why this distinction matters (a lot):

The Father is not _____ the Son in our salvation. God works in perfect _____ to save us.

<sup>17</sup> Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. <sup>18</sup> All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; <sup>19</sup> that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. (2 Cor. 5:17-19)

“The Father did not lay on the Son an ordeal he was reluctant to bear, nor did the Son extract from the Father a salvation he was reluctant to bestow.” (John Stott, The Cross of Christ)

The Son is neither _____ alone or _____ alone but the true _____ who alone can mediate for us.

“In order to save us in such a way as to satisfy himself, God through Christ substituted himself for us. Divine love triumphed over divine wrath by divine self-sacrifice. The cross was an act simultaneously of punishment and amnesty, severity and grace, justice and mercy.” (Stott)

Now look at yourself in light of the cross of Christ ...

Will you acknowledge the seriousness of your own sin and the magnitude of God’s grace? And in seeing both, will you humbly repent and receive mercy?

Or will you choose the only alternative to the cross?

Apart from the cross, there is no hope for forgiveness, reconciliation, or life. _____ is all that’s left.

How will you respond?

Lottie Moon Offering for International Missions

Calvary's Goal: $150,000

Every penny of this offering is used to support Southern Baptist missionaries as they share the hope and grace we have in Jesus Christ.

Give a gift to support Gospel work for special needs students

One of our global missions partners located in South Asia is CV Vadavana. CV oversees a special needs ministry for students known as Justin’s Home. We have the opportunity this Christmas to bless this ministry by sponsoring and praying for a student(s) or donating toward a resource needed for this special school. Grab an ornament from the Christmas trees displayed in the ROC lobby and scan the QR code to participate.

Thank you for your generosity and faithfulness!

You donated 366 shoesboxes for Operation Christmas Child this year!

2023 Contributions

Contributions for 2023 must be turned in to the Sunday offering by Sunday, December 31, postmarked by December 31, or brought to the church office by Friday, December 22. The church office will be closed December 25-29.

Ten Minutes Each Day Will Change Your Life

The Bible is a big book. But reading the Bible for just ten minutes a day will radically change your life. Where should you begin reading? There are plenty of Bible reading plans that make it easy. Below are a few that we think are helpful.

5x5x5 Bible Reading Plan (Beginner)

This plan allows you to read the entire New Testament in a year by reading for five minutes a day five times a week. With each reading there are five suggestions for how you can dig deeper into the passage and apply it to your life. web.archive.org/web/20131207190241/http://www.navpress.com/uploadedFiles/5x5x5\_BRP.pdf

Discipleship Journal Bible Reading Plan (Intermediate)

This plan takes you through the entire Bible in a year by reading four small sections each day. Each month has only 25 days of reading so that you don't get behind if you miss a day. This is the plan that we will include each week in our Sunday bulletin. navigators.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/12/navigation-bible-reading-plan.pdf

Robert Murray McCheyne's Bible Reading Plan (Challenging)

McCheyne was a godly Scottish pastor in the 19th century who created a challenging Bible reading plan for his own use. This plan takes the reader through the New Testament and Psalms twice and the rest of the Old Testament once each year. mcheyne.info/calendar.pdf

So ... choose a plan, determine a time, pray for God's help, and read! Don't get discouraged if you don't understand something right away. Keep a pen and paper nearby to write down questions you have as you read. Ask a small group leader or a pastor to help answer your questions, or better yet, find someone to regularly discuss your Bible reading with as a way to have some accountability.

Want to hear God speak to you this year? Read the Scriptures!

12 Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, <sup>2</sup> looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.

– Hebrews 12:1-2
