

Pray Like This

Matthew 6:9-15

The Privileged _____ of Christian Prayer

Even _____ and _____ pray. But we are told: “Do not pray like them” (v. 8)
⁹ Pray then like this: “Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.”

As _____, we should pray differently. The biggest difference in our praying is _____.

Christians get to speak to the King of the Universe as _____!

The Primary _____ of Christian Prayer

“Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. ¹⁰ Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.”

Though God is _____ to His children, he is still _____ and _____. When we pray to him, we do so with _____ and _____.

And when we pray that God’s name be “hallowed”, we are praying that the one, true God would be rightly _____ and _____ by _____ people everywhere. It is for the _____ of His name we pray.

God will be truly glorified when He _____. Thus, this is a _____ prayer!

*Is God’s good rule evident in _____?
Am I an _____ of the King to others?
Do I yearn for His _____ as King?*

The Predominant _____ of Christian Prayer

Christian praying begins with a right understanding of _____ God is (and what he is like) and _____ to him.

Because He is the only sovereign God over all the universe, and because His rule is a _____ rule (His _____ is for mankind’s good), His concerns in the world have _____ in our prayers.

Which makes his invitation to us to bring our requests to Him as his children all the more wonderful: He takes _____ in our coming to Him for our _____ (and daily) needs!

¹¹ Give us this day our daily bread ...

God’s desire is to foster a healthy, humble _____ on Him for all things (and the accompanying response of _____ and _____ for all He does).

*Am I joyfully _____ on my Father?
Am I in daily _____ with Him?
Do I want _____ or the _____ that I hope God will give me?*

Not only do we have daily _____ needs that we are dependent on God our Father for, we also have daily _____ needs. The greatest of these needs is God’s _____ expressed in _____.

¹² and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.

*Am I _____ daily so that I may walk with God in _____?
Do I have a forgiving spirit demonstrating that I am a _____?*

And finally, we are dependent on the Father for our daily _____ needs. As the Good Father, He leads us to _____ (in contrast with the enemy – who tempts us to _____.)

¹³ And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

*Do I honestly desire to _____ with my daily living?
Am I consistently, consciously _____ to live rightly?*

June Missions Spotlight

B and M (Global Missions Partner)

B and his team work alongside the South Asian church to see them take local stewardship of the Great Commission and Great Commandment, especially among Muslims who remain unreached and unengaged with the Gospel. If you would like to learn more about their ministry work, contact Tommy Perry and he will inform you of their efforts. If you would like to know how to pray for them, pick up a prayer card at the missions kiosk in the Fellowship Center Foyer.

Dare to Hope (Local Missions Partner)

Dare to Hope is a ministry bringing the hope of Jesus Christ to women who are hurting and hopeless due to exploitation. They serve those who are at risk of exploitation and exist to provide spiritual and emotional support as well as practical solutions that foster healing and wholeness for women, leading them from vulnerability to stability. If you would like to learn more about the ministry work of Dare to Hope, you can visit daretohope.net.

Prayer needs can be found on prayer cards at the missions kiosk in the Fellowship Center Foyer.
