

Laborers in His Harvest, Part II

Matthew 10:16-33

The "Limited" Commission continued ...

The Conditions:

_____ ...
_____ ...
_____ ...
_____ ...
_____ ...

The Commands (explicit and implicit):

Be _____ ...
Be _____ ...
Be _____ ...
Be _____ ...
Be _____ ...
Be _____ ...

The critical takeaways for us from these warnings and commands:

The _____ for authentic Christianity hasn't changed. "Sheep in the midst of wolves" is still _____.

So we have to be _____ but without _____.

If we are _____, we will be _____ by those who hate the _____ (and _____).

So stop trying so hard to be "loved" and _____ by a culture that hates _____.

And don't allow an anti-Christian culture to define _____.

The ultimate solution the Bible offers for the _____ is a _____
_____.*.

There are a few reasons listed here not to fear:

- 1) _____ will be revealed one day.
- 2) There is _____ after death.
- 3) But the _____ reason not to fear man is because we _____.

_____ still provides the strength, direction, and words we need in the moment of challenge. (He is sufficient.)

So we must learn to have _____ with Him and to "_____ " with Him.

We are _____, _____, and _____ by God ("Immortal" till He says otherwise)

So rest in His _____.

We must _____ unashamedly as faithful followers of Jesus _____. (To fail here is unthinkable.)

If my fidelity to Jesus does not "_____ " in the everyday activities of my life, I am _____ before men.

My response today:
