

Loving God When Life Finally Works

2 Samuel 2:1-4; 5:1-5

Psalm 20:6-9; Psalm 21

From the Wilderness to the Throne

After many years of trial intermingled with tragedy, David finally experiences the triumph that was promised him at his anointing.

Anointed as a teenager, he endured Saul's pursuit, wilderness hiding, and near-constant warfare. Finally, in Hebron, he is anointed king – first over Judah, and then over all Israel. At thirty years old, the promise is fulfilled.

But David would discover that it's not just hardship and difficulty that shapes and challenges a person. It's also success and prosperity.

Some Dangers that Accompany Success

Heightened _____ – the 'guard' comes down

Bad _____ – blessing becomes entitlement

Self-_____ – desperation fades and dependence erodes

Spiritual _____ – the urgency of seeking God diminishes

How to Keep your Spiritual Edge – and Fuel Your Love for the Lord – in a Season of Plenty

(A Few Lessons from Psalm 21)

Take time to _____ with _____.

_____ God by enjoying His _____.

As you _____ God for the past, actively _____ Him for the future.

In the _____ you've been given, make _____ of God.
