

The Song of Your Life

Psalm 71:17-18

"O God, from my youth you have taught me, and I still proclaim your wondrous deeds. So even to old age and gray hairs, O God, do not forsake me, until I proclaim your might to another generation, your power to all those to come."

The one message above all that pours out consistently from the life, heart, and lips of David, his obsession, was the unchanging, unshakable, _____ and _____ of God!

Some ways the steadfast love of God changes our lives...

1. God's steadfast love transforms our ability and willingness to give out _____, forgiveness, _____, and mercy like we have received.
2. God's steadfast love creates real _____, a changed mind, and new ways of living. We do not continue to _____ upon his kindness and mercy. We respond in holy _____.
3. God's steadfast love creates a _____ heart toward the pains and _____ of others. When God carries us through hardships, losses, and pain, we can better _____, feel, and lean into _____ others through theirs. Just like God didn't leave us alone in our dark places, we _____ to walk with others in theirs.
4. God's steadfast love creates _____ and _____ for the future _____ and hardships ahead.
5. God's faithfulness and steadfast love produces songs of _____ deep in our hearts and _____ on our lips.

The ultimate aim of God in our _____ and sanctification is to restore us back to a people who _____ God and _____ Him forever!

The only thing that makes _____ in light of all that we have received from God in Christ is to live a life of _____ before Him! (Romans 12:1)

God's _____ makes our faithfulness and worship possible.